'Comedy Under the Stars' at the Y leaves audience smiling

WAYNE - The Parenting Center at the YM-YWHA of North Jersey held its sixth "Comedy Under the Stars" on Saturday, Aug. 1, featuring emcee and comedian, Davin Rosenblatt. Originally from Bergen County, Rosenblatt has been entertaining audiences throughout the country for several years and has recently returned from a entertaining the troops in Iraq. His likeable, yet confident style was enjoyed by well over 100 people in the audience. Being Jewish is just a part of this comic's routine and his storytelling and true life experiences left everyone laughing!

Other comics that evening included Shaun Eli, Mike Weiss, Elaine Williams, Rob Ryan, and Joe Romby Jr. These comics have performed at numerous clubs and venues, some on the east coast and some nationally, and have entertained countless people with their humor and unique styles. Members of the audience got to dance on stage with Mike Weiss, and laugh with Elaine Williams about the trials and tribulations of being single and looking for a nice Jewish guy!

Comedy Under the Stars has consistently brought comedians to the stage at the Y, ranging from the age of 21 to the ripe age of 83, some who have performed for years and some who are on the stage for perhaps the first or second time! At this event, Dr. Howard Alan Zucker shared his childhood stories and amusing tales about his many years of experience as a renowned Pediatric Cardiologist, Anesthesiologist AND Attorney at Law!
